Skins Glamorizes Statutory Rape

It was in the news again this week. A 38-year-old teacher from Kentucky was arrested after being caught partially naked with one of her students.

Similar reports seem to be appearing in the news with disturbing frequency in recent years. Adults, put in a position of trust and authority over impressionable youngsters, abusing their position and power to seduce or sexually exploit the children entrusted to their care.

If's not a trivial matter, and yet Skins ? a show expressly targeted to teenage viewers and featuring a mostly teenaged cast ? this week chose to highlight an affair between an adult teacher and her teenage student.

Tina goes through her papers in the teacher?s lounge. She gets to Chris? and sees the title, which reads, ?How I?m Going to Bone You Tonight?

Tina (reading): ?Dear Tina, I?m sitting here with a really, really massive [expletive deleted by PTC]. Like, throbbing, you know? I can?t help it. The way you sit with your breasts all perky. Once we get back to your apartment, I?m going to rip off your shirt and start groping your [expletive deleted by PTC].?

...And this:

Chris and Tina have sex in her bed. Chris is holding the headboard which shakes back and forth from their activity.

Tina: "Jesus, Chris! Slow down!"

Chris: "Thing?s screwing up my rhythm!"

Tina: "Is it supposed to be going that fast?"

She looks at a miniature steam engine Chris took from the Physics teacher, Dave, sitting on the table beside the bed.

Tina bangs against the headboard, moaning and about to climax.

Dave enters Tina's apartment and hears Tina climax. Dave enters the bedroom. He sees Chris on top of Tina. The machine explodes.

The depiction of a sexual relationship between an adult and a child as somehow romantic or exciting is grossly irresponsible.

And to force every cable household in America to underwrite such content is unconscionable.

In the nine episodes of Skins that have aired to date, there have been over 1,000 instances of sex, violence, profanity, or drug or alcohol use. In last night's episode alone, there were 85 instances of sexual content ? or one every 28 seconds.

At least two experiments show that watching MTV results in more permissive attitudes about sex. One experiment showed that college students who were assigned to watch MTV developed more liberal attitudes toward premarital sex than their peers who did not watch MTV as part of the study. The second found that seventh and ninth graders were more likely to approve of premarital sex after watching MTV for one hour. Other studies have shown that greater exposure to and greater involvement with sexual content on TV leads to a stronger endorsement of recreational sex, higher expectations of the sexual activity of one's peers, and more extensive sexual experience.

I am urging you to no longer broadcast the MTV show "Skins."

With urgent thanks,

[REDACTED] bb

Program Title: Skins

Broadcast Date: 03/14/2011

Broadcast time: 7:00PM

Skin shows teens having sex with each other and with a teacher. It also showed teens high, smoking marijuana, and using ecstasy. I am totally appalled that this show has been allowed to air primetime on a network that young kids watch. I am a young teacher at a middle school, and I see daily my students replicating the same behaviors from this show. I spent the majority of my day, not educating children, but trying to eradicate problem behaviors that are glamorized on this show. I am just shocked.

Please do our kids a favor and shut the Skins program down. I realize that MTV gets ratings, but at what point do we need to put money aside and put morals ahead?

Problem Description

Skins, the hard times of rj berger as well as many other programs affiliated with mtv Viacom such as degrassi feature drug use & highly sexual themed programs featuring young characters. I believe these shows target our youth and send the wrong message to our children. We should not support these type of programs. I hope something is done so that Viacom will no longer be able to air these distasteful programming. Rj Berger in just a preview of the show is trying to take off another girls bra ( these are under age kids) and he is having difficulties when an adult woman (I'm assuming is his mother) comes to his aid and helps him remove her bra. In another preview he sees a attractive peer in school and the young woman asks if he picturing her naked. Skins features sexual and drug related storylines. I do not want my family watching this material.

Problem Description
I watched a few minutes from the controversial show on mtv called skins and in the 10 minutes of viewing I was completely disgusted. A young guy, possibly not out of his teens, was walking down a street naked. MTV aired this nudity and that is completely inappropriate. At what point do you draw the line for child porn? I have never been so disgusted at a television show as much as I am this one. Drug use, sex, lying, and wreckless behavior that is so called the "depiction" of today's youth. This is a lie. The show is supposed to be about troubled youth but in my time as a youth I was never exposed to such actions nor were my peers. It is highly offensive to even SUGGEST that this is how the youth of America acts because it is not. There are good people out there who are teens who do not engage in this kind of disgusting behavior. I would be embarrassed if this is how we as a country want to exemplify our youth and future leaders of our nation. This show needs and SHOULD be pulled from viewing. As a father and a young father at that does not want any of this mess that is being show exposed to my daughter EVER. This is cable television. This isn't HBO or Cinemax where you have to pay to watch filth. This is available to anyone see and it certainly not something our teens should use as an example for growth. I've been on this earth for 25 years and I have never been so offended by such profane, obscene, indecent, and vulgar depiction of teens. I hope justice prevails in this case and this show be removed from network programming. It seems the world and TV feeds on filth and things that are good, harmless, and morally abundant are shunned and degraded. Do what is right and rid our tv's of this trash.

Problem Description

I'm not certain of the time and date that the show "Skins" was on, but... In the 10 minutes I watched, I saw the following:

- 1) Teens smoking marijuana
- 2) A young boy portrayed masturbating
- 3) Two teen lesbians kissing passionately in front of all their peers at a high school party
- 4) Teen nudity (no major parts showing, but enough to get the idea)
- 5) A teen girl getting involved sexually with an older man who was ?chaperoning? the party, and telling her to keep it a secret.

- 6) Underage drug use.
- 7) Horrible language

This was all I could take and changed the channel. My kids will get enough bad put in their faces, I don't need MTV normalizing this type of stuff and make it seem like everyone is doing it.

Drug and sex addition will be the brake down of our society and it needs to be stopped.

Thanks,

If HBO wants to run the series on a "late night" basis, or some porn channel, then this show would be better suited on that station. MTV, however has decided to air a show that degrades teenagers and glorifies, promotes sex to teens. It's a shame that I have to put parental control locks on MTV, a station that used to play music. Now they play nothing but mindless garbage that our teens soak up and portray. Ban SKINS!

Problem Description

?Skins? is a title that derives from the rolling papers that are used to make the blunts that go with the vodka that washes down the pills that accompany the hookups ? is mostly about explicitly teenage characters doing explicit things. MTV executives themselves apparently thought might edge into child-porn territory. Teenagers show children how to roll blunts, bottles of vodka are traded on merry go-rounds, and youngsters shrug off being molested and threatened by a drug dealer. One of the characters in Episode 3 ? runs naked down the street with a pill-enhanced erection.

Teenagers are highly impressionable, and they?re vulnerable to these kinds of messages. This show is completely inappropriate for TV. As a parent I don't believe it should be aired. It does not teach moral values and I take offence at the notion that kids are being filmed and encouraged to do the things that happen on this show. Please look into pulling this show from the air and help encourage programs that encourage kids to do good and not to do drugs and have sex. Programs like Skins are why our youth is as bad as they are. Thank you.

For the sake of morality for the sake of our children for the sake of our nation...Please pull the plug on the MTV show SKINS. This show is simply unacceptable. It glorifies everything that I and millions of other parents across America are trying to shield our children from. Elicit sex, homosexuality, drugs, pornography, just to name a few. This is not entertainment, this is detrimental to welfare of our youth. If this type of show is accepted as okay to watch, then the future of this country is truly in jeopardy. Until this show is removed from TV I will not support any of the sponsors. As a concerned citizen I'm asking. As a Christian I'm pleading. As a mother I'm begging. And as a taxpayer and consumer I'm demanding this show be removed from television.

I can't remember details, since it was a week or two ago, however what I do remember is that the show was laden with minors having sex,stealing and using drugs and alcohol. I watched it to see if they would put a spin on it at the end, ultimately showing that these things are harmful, however it never did and conversely glorified them instead. I'm shocked and appalled that any network would think this was ok to put out. It's absolutely disgusting and embarrassing to me as an American to portray our youth in this light. Mtv is not known for wholesome, positive programming,however they crossed the line and pushed the envelope way too far on this one, as it seems they are fond of doing quite frequently. Please take action to stop this destructive programming. Thank you.

Problem Description

I first filed a complaint about this show on Jan. 21. I just received a letter stating that I did not include the information necessary to file a complaint and my complaint would be dismissed. I did include everything that this form asked for, but I will do it again.

This show is very obscene and inappropriate for any audience. It depicts underage teenagers in many explicit sexual situations....graphically touching each other's private parts and appearing to have sex as well as doing drugs. Some appeared to be as young as 15. These actors are being taken advantage of...they are not old enough to understand what they are doing, and I'm sure it is illegal to present children having sex on TV. It also sends the worst possible message to teenagers who are certainly watching this program no matter what time it airs (they record it or upload it)...that this is acceptable behavior for young teens when in fact, it creates many of the problems we have in this country with young people....STD's, unplanned pregnancies, health problems due to drug use, and depression...all of which cost this country millions of dollars in health care costs. This show is blatantly offensive to me as parent, and my heart breaks for those children who are the actors on this show. They are basically having sex on TV for the world to see and it will probably corrupt their lives forever.

The fact that my complaint was not accepted shows that there is waste of time and resources in our government. I know that the FCC received many complaints about this show...there was no doubt as to the nature of my complaint, and I provided all the requested information. Someone had to write, print, and mail the letter I received, which was wasted time and money. I provided the date, time, station, channel, and title in the blanks on this form, as well as a detailed description, so I expect this complaint to be registered this time.

This is a formal COMPLAINT of indecency on broadcast television. My complaint concerns the PROGRAM ON:

Network:

Program Name: Skins & Jersey Shore
 Broadcast Date: Thursday nights and repeats
 Broadcast Time: 9:00pm ET

My Affiliate:

Description of Indecency:

I think it's time for our country to put a stop to these shows. They are so immoral and send the young message to our teenagers. Even my teenage daughters are disgusted with the behavior of the people on these shows.

Take them OFF THE AIR and other shows just like them. It's time to start watching what we allow to be put on TV anymore. Curse words are getting worse, sex is too explicit, even shows that I enjoy watching are starting to get too graphic in their curse words. I try to teach my daughters how they should expect to be treated by young men and then they watch these shows and see how disrespectful girls are being treated and allowing themselves to be treated. These TV shows are making it more and more difficult for kids in our country to grow up nice moral, drug free kids when all they watch on TV is about having sex and drinking and doing drugs.

I love to watch TV but I'm starting to believe that TV shows are destroying the American Family.

COMPLAINANT RESPECTFULLY REQUESTS THAT THE FCC ACKNOWLEDGE RECEIPT OF THIS COMPLAINT, AND THAT THE FCC KEEP ME INFORMED OF THE PROGRESS AND RESULTS OF YOUR INVESTIGATION INTO THIS MATTER.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED] bb

Problem Description
On news radio I heard about an indecent show called 'skins' produced and shown on MTV. While in New York City this past weekend I also saw huge billboards (with pictures of 2 teenage girls licking a teenage boy) and other advertisements for this show. My two daughters, 14yo and 13yo, also noticed the signs. Before making judgement regarding this show I went on line to the MTV website and watched as much of an episode of skins I could stand...about 7 minutes. During that 7 minutes I listed all the things I found offensive and potentially harmful for my (any) child: Please note that all characters are portrayed as high school teenagers Drug use - marijuana and pills (light blue?) Nudity of an underage girl Two girls kissing which lead to a full blown sex scene/sleepover after which they wake-up naked together!! Vulgarity Profanity - shit, asshole, bitch (which, sadly, were the least of the offenses) Parents portrayed as inattentive idiots unaware of how horrible they're kids are behaving. I had to turn it off. That was only 7 minutes of 1 episode so I can only imagine (probably not even...) what else is on there. It's heartbreaking that the media has come to this. And parents are sitting idly-by or innocently ignorant while their kids are being fed this perverse material. I read some of the reviews on the website and many kids wrote in saying that it's too much and they aren't going to watch it. Ultimately I believe it's not about the kids, it's about perverted producers and perverted ADULT viewers! It is CHILD PORNOGRAPHY and needs to be stopped! It isn't enough to put blocks on individual tvs. Where are the standards? Who has control? This is not a case of mtv exerting their right to free speech! What they are doing is illegal! and needs to be stopped. That show, skins, must to be taken off air! One Angry Mom

My wife viewed this program and found that it was directed to the teenage audience and that it graphically displayed activities that people should not do especially teenagers. She interpreted it as promoting these activities, which are dangerous and inappropriate for teenagers. She realizes that the program is on late, however due to the time and the audience it is directed to she feels that it needs a serious review or to be pulled from the air or moved to a more appropriate time and day. As you know she too was once a teenager and knows how teenagers interpret these types of shows.

This program is extremely offensive and should not be accessible to any teenager or adult watching TV. It's disgusting, and there isn't even any plot, just a string of obscene events. If this is supposed to a reflection of normal American teenage life, then we're all in deep trouble. Please take this off the air ASAP!

When I saw the promotion for Skins I was disgusted as to what I saw, sex and drug scenes that are equal to child pornography. Then I watched the show and could not continue after the first 5 minutes of it, especially after reading a quick review of what the episode was about. Young teens having sex in public, promoting same sex partnership, contant [sic] use of drugs and having scenes of young teens masterbating. It is disgusting!!!!!! I am a fan of MTV, not on everything but I do see most shows, but I am dissapointed to the extreme that this show has gone. I am petitioning that this show be taken off the air immediately as it is offensinsive interpretations of our American Teenagers, Families and our Society. As a mother I have morals and values as a Christian individual and this show does not reflect who I was as a teen nor my family. As a school social worker for a public middle school, this show is an extreme interpretation. Please take this show off the air!!!!!! Thanks!

THIS SHOW IS NOTHING MORE THAN A SADISTIC PORTRAYAL OF WHAT ALL PARENTS ARE DEATHLY AFRAID OF THEIR TEENAGED CHILDREN BECOMING. IT IS FAR TOO GRAPHIC WITH REPEATED DRUG ABUSE, BORDERLINE HARD CORE PORN OPPOSITE SEX AND SAME SEX, MOBISH GANGSTER BEHAVIOR BY A PARENTAL FIGURE, MEANINGLESS SEX BETWEEN CHILDREN WHO ARE NOT CAPABLE OF MAKING AN INFORMED DECISION, SINGLE PARENTHOOD OF MULTIPLE CHILDREN WITH THE OLDER TEENAGER LIVING OFF HER PARENTS, COMPLETE LACK OF PARENTAL AWARENESS AND/OR CONCERN. ITS OFFENSIVE IN EVERY WAY AND ONLY SERVES TO PROMOTE INAPPROPRIATE BEHAVIOR BY CHILDREN, TEENAGERS AND ADULTS.

Problem Description

I am truly offended by the show Skins on MTV. As a mother, a sister to young teenagers, and as an educator working with young teens, I truly feel that our televised programs have a lot of influential factors in our students/children. This is one that is an extreme offense to our young people. It gives them the idea that sex, drinking, drugs, and violence are not only acceptable, but are promoted. I feel that it should be taken off of the air.

This show is borderline pornography and these look like kids, young teenagers. This show is a disgrace to every parent in the US trying to raise responsible kids. We should not be exposing kids to this type of behavior not should we be giving child molesters and child pornography watchers programs on regular TV to feed their sick fantasies. This show needs to be removed from the air IMMEDIATELY and if people want to watch it, let them rent it from an adult store.

Problem Description

This television show depicts teens engaging in illegal activities for their age. They are apparently involved with alcohol, drugs, and other negative activities. They are also engaging in things of a sexual nature that are not appropriate for television, especially for the age these characters depict. This show makes it seem like all of today's teens engage in this behavior and that it's exciting and dramatic. In fact, all teens do not necessarily act like this. However, if this type of programming is still aloud on TV and if the popularity of such a program grows, the behavior may soon become "normal" which is incredibly unfortunate since it has been proven that alcohol, drugs, and sex among teens have a generally detrimental effect on their psychological, emotional, physical, and social development.

Problem Description

I am a young teenager and I truly believe in CULTURAL INFLUENCES in society this show aired an when i took sight of the things that were being talked about and the things that could possibly take place it worried me a lot. With the condition our country is in and the high percentage of teenage pregnancy,high school dropouts and TEENAGE DRUG USE why show a show be aired like this. This show is glorifying the very things I listed above and young teenagers and older ones could be influenced. This show targets teens who have little guidance and ones who believe they are already adults and don't have real role models in their lives. I know MTV is not a children network and parental advisory is probably advised but this show doesn't appear to be censored and parents would probably think nothing of it. I hope and pray that this show doesn't air for long and parents will stand up for their children and the things that are being marketed to them. THANK YOU FOR HEARING MT THOUGHTS AND OPINIONS MOM$AGAINSTHIPHOP

Problem Description

I am a 22 year old college student & while watching one of my usualy programs the series premier of SKINS came on & I was embarrassed & SHOCKED that this show was even airing on a channel that 11, 12, 13 year old children could view. I am a 22 year old married woman with 2 children & shows like this,in my opinion, encourage sexual behavior at an early age when MOST teens are not WELL aware of the risks, etc. Not only was sexual behavior exposed but the use of drugs & alcohol too. ASTONISHING, what is this world coming too??

MTV states that the show is the "reality" of teen today?? Maybe so but our children do not need to be learning about this type of behavior from a televison set. Parents need to be the ones to teach their children/teens about risks & certain behaviors. This program needs to be removed or if anything show at a later time so that only ADULT can view tha material.

This and many other MTV shows are damaging to the social fabric of this country. It is an outrage that the FCC has not done ANYTHING about the reckless garbage that is on TV. Hiding behind the mantra, you don't have to watch it is a cop out. So many parents do not monitor what their kids watch, and then this new normal slowly become acceptable in society over the course of years. Now look where we are.

Do your job and remove this garbage!

Problem Description

To whom it may concern,

I am writing about a new teen show that is airing on MTV called Skins. Apparently, it is an American adaptation of a show that originated in Europe. My concern in writing is the message that this show sends to our children today. In a society where children already are dealing with major issues of fatherlessness, broken homes, single parent homes, drugs, rape, molestation, pre-marital sex, low-self esteem etc. this show takes those issues and makes them appear to not be issues. Showing teens out of control living their lives without parental guidance is dangerous. With all the issues parents face in the home today this type of show furthers the agenda of a lawless society where children take control of their own lives acting as immature adults that live irresponsibly. On top of the message the show sends the use and encouragement of profane language among teens on children's programming is erroneous. The sexual images are too edgy for none movie channel programming. Also, if we are a country that is fighting the ?War on Drugs? why would we allow programming that encourages our teens to buy and use drugs? This is more than just a program that shows teens that life is just a big party with a few bumps along the way. This is a program that shows teens that the major issues they face in society today and the very things that they should not do are ok. Programs like this dumb down the idea of being responsible and that there are consequences for engaging in things that are damaging to our lives. I hope the FCC would reconsider and not let this program continue to run on the air for the sake of the next generation. Where will our government be if those that are to be next in line generationaly grow up with a lawless state of mind brought on by watching countless hours of programs like ?Skins? or anything simular to it? As, a nation we owe it to our children to protect them from danger and teach things to them that will help them grow up as sensible, responsible, and upstanding adult citizens of the United States. Though taking one program off the air may be a small step we would hope that other programs simular are taken off and future shows like it are never allowed to air. We are asking the FCC to help us preserve our children for a better life when they become adults.

Problem Description

I have viewed segments of the MTV series "Skins" after controversial articles appeared in the media regarding it. Not only does it promote underage illicit drug and alcohol use. It exploits actors and actresses who are minors and the minor children who are their viewing audience. As a parent of 7 children we have taken action to eliminate MTV and every other Viacom network from our family's viewing. However, the dangers in promoting underage sex, pornography and addictive substance use shows complete disregard for the real world we live in including teen pregnancy, teen addiction, suicide resulting from these issues and STD's. Please act now to restore decency to the standards for this openly accessible TV Series that violates federal law and every notable standard of social decency!

Problem Description

MTV's new show SKINS, promotes teen sex, drug abuse, rebellion...pretty much anarchy. Society doesn't need a show with very young actors to glamorize the chaos we face in this world. MTV is extremely popular with the youth and many will believe it's ok to do drugs, or have unprotected teen sex...because "it's the cool thing to do." This show is extremely inappropriate and disturbing for ALL VIEWERS.

I cannot even begin to explain the lewdness of this show. For ANYONE to see that much skin on an underage child in such a sexual manner is deplorable. To think of the sex offenders and young people influenced by this show makes me ill.

MTV has a new show skins that is about to air and unfourtantly my family and I were exposed to this garbage while watching another station. The commerical for this show came on and showed teens, drinking and doing drugs. They also showed them participating in illicit sexual acts as well as getting high etc. This show is simply soft core porn for teens and should be removed from the air.

Problem Description

Federal Communications Commission
 Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau
 Consumer Complaints

Dear FCC:

Please review the footage of "Skins" (TV-MA) that Viacom has for broadcast on MTV. The previews/commercials for it shown during the TV-14 show, "Jersey Shore," were disturbingly pornographic in my opinion, not to mention the wanton foul language, illegal drug use, illegal activity as well as the thoroughly pervasive sexual content portrayed.

As someone who teaches children from 11yrs to 18yrs daily, they are extremely impressionable and given an idea, are likely to try to imitate it without thought of the possible consequences. Children's pre-frontal cortex, where judgments and consideration of possible consequences are made, is not completely developed until about age 25. Therefore children do not have the faculties to decide whether something is possibly positive or negative to them. "Skins" does not portray the consequences of the actions portrayed. I imagine that the show would not be nearly the 'hit' it is if it did portray the true consequences.

I urge you to take action to prevent the broadcast of "Skins" in any form on the airways, cable or otherwise, of the United States of America. We have higher standards here and care about the development of our children into responsible, mature adults.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED] bb

Please open an investigation regarding possible child pornography and exploitation on MTV's new series ?Skins.?

Skins is filled with graphic content involving high-school children, including depictions of teens drinking, smoking marijuana, and using massive quantities of drugs, engaging in violent acts, and having irresponsible sex with each other, with their schoolteachers, and with other adults.

Skins is about high-school children. Mixed in with the graphic drug use and sex scenes are storylines about falling in love and problems at school ? elements sure to generate interest from teens. The show is being written, in part, by teens. And the Skins cast is actually made up of teenagers, not adult actors playing teens. One cast member is only 15 years old.

While I have not seen this program, I have seen the trailers and advertising for it and was absolutely appalled at the casual nature displayed by children toward teen sex, drugs and relationships. The advertising trailers alone should be controlled relative to small children due to their sexually suggestive content and adult situations. Considering that these are not adult actors makes this even more repulsive and do not understand how the advertising let alone the show can be aired legally! I don't watch MTV and have it blocked on my home TV but the advertisement was shown on multiple other channels during normal family viewing hours.

Problem Description

Note the previous form I submitted had an incorrect date and time please disregard. In detailing my objections to this film I am including a copy of an e-mail I sent to MTV executives. Dear MTV Executives,

The decision to acquire and air an Americanized version of the UK TV Series "Skins" is alarming, morally reprehensible and shows a complete lack of respect for the loyal viewers you have had over the years (many of which are minors, including 1.2 Million loyal viewers of the recent series "Jersey Shore" during whose broadcast "Skins" was aggressively advertised by your company). I have taken actions to eliminate all MTV content on the web or TV from my family's access. We in addition have eliminated any Viacom related programming or media from coming into our home. Having Seven children we confront the issues of teen sex, addiction, pregnancy, etc. in a responsible way as parents discussing issues and educating our children to avoid debauchery and those things that can destroy or ruin young lives. We live in a day where sex sells and the profit motive you have is too insatiable to exercise the right of self-control to check greed and deny the exploitation of children on your network. Furthermore, whether natural or federal law has been violated, even the lowest standards of human decency in protecting the rights of children have been violated by your company and those who lead it for the sole purpose of exploiting viewers basest instincts to turn a profit. My family is not only wholly shocked and offended by such disregard for human principle but will also take continued action against your company to employ every legal means of reducing viewers, discouraging investors and lobbying for federal prosecution for such offenses.

Currently, I have issued a formal complaint with the FCC, joined a PAC watchdog group to continue further action, as a businessman asked my stock broker to review funds and ensure I have nothing invested in Viacom interests and to sell anything I have. I have also donated substantial funding to groups forming legal inquiries and lobbying congress to ensure there is further inconvenient and disruptive oversight to your company. I have written the committees in Congress to urge them to enact punitive and restrictive measures including urging the punishment of your network for possession of sexual material that exploits minors whether the content is edited or not. I am a firm believer that the society we live in has pursued a path of greed for the sake of more profits and in turn has exploited children, intentionally influenced attitudes including those involving teen sex, unsafe sex, teen pregnancy, teen addiction, teen suicide resulting from these issues of emotional roulette and the exploitation of minors.

I am currently a mentor of teens addicted to drugs and alcohol. I also have volunteered with youth crisis centers who help disadvantaged youth through these complex issues. Confronting these critical issues and real world topics by visually exploiting, seducing and influencing these minors or adults with reprehensible glorification and portrayal of obscenity simply is a grandstand to further impact the destruction of these young lives. The perpetrators of such poor judgment deserve and ought to receive the stiffest punishment of the law and the reduction of future profits through public backlash. Any human of the lowest inclination for child and human rights would remove this program immediately and apologize for their blind judgment driven by insatiable greed.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED] bb

Problem Description

The tv show "Skins" is promoting homosexuality, free and casual sex, and a step close to child porn. If there are any concerns for our youth today and the future at the MTV station, they would not air such shows. Children and young adults are lead by example. If they see this show they may feel that it acceptable to be gay have casual sex and allow children to take part in sexual activities. The world is so rampant with STDs and the AIDS virus, this is only a stepping stone for viewers to engage in activities that this show portrays to contract a disease or a virus that they will not be able to get rid of. Thanks

Problem Description

This show is full of sexually and demoralizing situations featuring teenagers who are underage. The show claims that it's aim is to show the "typical teenager" but this is not how all teenagers are. However, it does succeed in giving teenagers who are not like those portrayed on this show ideas of how to become like them. The glorification of sex and drugs on show marketed for teenagers is not what should be on our television. Please have this show taken off the air. Thank You.

Problem Description

This is a disgusting show and I am appalled that this is centered around high schools kids and is promoting promiscuity, drug use & same sex relationships! Lets let children (and that's what they are) grow up with good role models and if they so choose that path when they're adults so be it. It's just a trashy, useless show and has no business being on TV! Who raised these producers these days? I wasn't raised like that and I bet whoever is reading this wasn't either!

Problem Description

This show is disgusting, and you need to step up and take action. If the FCC can't regulate the defiling of minors on a major network, I don't know what your purpose is. There is a significant trend in television towards jokes and subject matter about pedophilia, and it makes me ashamed that the greatest country in the world can't even protect its children within its own borders. I'm pretty sure the Founders are rolling in their graves knowing that the First Amendment is being used as a shield to protect the worst of our society while they attack the most vulnerable of our society. Do something!
